New Course Proposal 2017-2018

English

DUAL CREDIT ENGLISH III AMERICAN LITERATURE (COMPOSITION I)			4.0
Prerequisite(s): A student must be college ready in reading and writing according to TSI college-ready standards and needs to earn a Level II on English II EOC, 80 average, acceptance to Blinn College.	Credit	Grade Level	Course Length
	.5 credit	11	Semester
Course Description: Intensive study of and practice in writing processes, from invention and researching to drafting, revising, and editing, both individually and collaboratively. Emphasis on effective rhetorical choices, including audience, purpose, arrangement, and style. Focus on writing the academic essay as a vehicle for learning, communicating, and critical analysis. This writing intensive first-semester freshman composition course includes (1) study of and practice in all phases of the writing process, both individually and collaboratively, and (2) study of and practice in the strategies and techniques for developing research-based expository and persuasive texts. Essays including a 1500-word documented library research-based paper, are required.
Fee: $318.00	English Credit
TEA Course Title	TEA Course Abbrev.	TEA/PIEMS number
English III	ENG 3	03220307

Justification for new course to be presented to CIP committee, DEIC, and school board: College View High School will be offering the most academic dual-credit for students in CSISD when compared to the other two high schools. We met with Blinn to discuss the potential dual-credit courses we would offer students at CVHS and they shared we could offer English III for our junior class. This will help meet the expected 30 hours of proposed dual-credit course offerings.

DUAL CREDIT ENGLISH III AMERICAN LITERATURE (COMPOSITION II)			4.0
Prerequisite(s): A student must be college ready in reading and writing according to TSI college-ready standards and needs to earn a Level II on English II EOC, 80 average, acceptance to Blinn College.	Credit	Grade Level	Course Length
	.5 credit	11	Semester
Course Description: Intensive study of and practice in the strategies and techniques for developing research-based expository and persuasive texts. Emphasis on effective and ethical rhetorical inquiry; teamwork; critical reading of verbal, visual, and multimedia texts; systematic evaluation, synthesis, and documentation of information sources; and critical thinking about evidence and conclusions. This reading and writing intensive prerequisite for sophomore English offerings further develops the analytical, thinking, and research skills underlying academic success through the study of literature. The student's writing of genre-based essays, including researched papers, reinforces the thinking skills associated with interpretation, explication, evaluation, analysis, and synthesis. Essays, including a 1500-2000 word documented library research-based paper, are required.
Fee: $318.00	English Credit

ELECTIVES – SPECIAL TOPICS IN SOCIAL STUDIES – CVHS

4760	SPECIAL TOPICS IN SOCIAL STUDIES: REEL AMERICA		4.0
Prerequisite(s): None	Credit	Grade Level	Course Length
	.5 credit	9/10/11/12th	Semester

Course description: This course will provide students with an opportunity to analyze the movies and how they have shaped America’s perception of its history. The course will investigate historical accuracy, points of view, bias, and perpetuation of historical myth. The students will develop the ability to assimilate, analyze, and understand visual text. Also students will gain an understanding of the movies’ impact on American culture, values, beliefs, and behavior.

Fee: None	Social Studies Elective Credit
TEA Course Title	TEA Course Abbrev.	TEA/PEIMS number
Special Topics in Social Studies	SPTSS2	03380022

Justification for new course to be presented to CIP committee, DEIC, and school board:

CVHS only has two endorsements available, one of which is Arts and Humanities. This class would be an elective that would go towards that endorsement. It would also allow students to learn more about history in a manner that may be more relevant to their daily lives.
