MEMORANDUM

TO: Eddie Coulson, Superintendent

FROM: Beth French, Election Coordinator BF

DATE: February 15, 2007

SUBJECT: Report on School Board Continuing Education

AGENDA ITEM: M-1

Board Policy BBD Legal requires that at the annual Board meeting at which the call for election of Board Members is normally considered, the Board President shall cause the minutes to reflect the members who have and have not completed the required continuing education. Board members must complete training required by the State Board of Education (SBOE). Continuing education for Board members includes a local District orientation session, an orientation to the Texas Education Code, an annual team-building session with the Board and the Superintendent, and continuing education based on identified needs. In the first year of service, Board members shall receive at least ten hours of continuing education in fulfillment of assessed needs and following the first year of service, Board members shall receive at least five hours of continuing education annually in fulfillment of assessed needs. The report below reflects all board training through February 1, 2007.

Board members have completed the following hours in continuing education:
