INTER-DEPARTMENTAL MEMO

TO: Glynn Walker
DATE: November 2, 2011
SUBJECT: Furniture for College Station High School

As part of the 2009 bond program, the Principal for College Station High School, Director of Purchasing and representatives from School Specialty have worked to identify the office, classroom and cafeteria furniture needed at this campus. School Specialty was awarded Request for Competitive Sealed Proposals (RFCSP) #11-001 - Interior Furnishings for new and renovated facilities within the district.

The attached proposal from School Specialty is a result of several planning meetings with representatives from the district and the vendor. It is the recommendation of Mark Pantel, Director of Purchasing and Mike Martindale, Principal College Station High School to purchase this furniture for College Station High School from School Specialty delivered, assembled and installed for $1,208,885.37. This quote also includes related interior furnishings for this campus.
